

The Day of the Principal

by Liv Rola

It was just one of those windy days, when 3 high schoolers, Kai, Skye, and Hannah were walking to their school. When they got there, they went to the office to tell the Principal they were thankful for her.

When they got inside, no one was there; not even the Assistant Principal. It was very unusual when they asked the staff where they were and they said they didn't know. It was then when the speaker went on and everyone in the room went silent. "Hello." the speaker said, sounding a bit fuzzy and unclear. That's when the 3 students were shocked to hear that the Principal was absent. As they walked through the halls, they could hear people saying, "Are they serious?" "Who will be Principal?" "I can't believe it!" All the people in class were worried. They could not even pay attention. When the teachers realized this, they canceled all the tests. No one had the courage to say yay or shout hooray. While the teachers worried about their students, the students worried about the Principal. The teachers and staff could not take it anymore, they needed a Principal to lead them. So they announced that there would be an election to see who would be Principal for the day.

Kai decided to run in the election. All 3 students, Kai, Skye, and Hannah planned to vote for Kai. It was not easy, because Kai ran against Mike who was nice and popular. She won by only a few votes. She was excited to be Principal but wasn't all fun and games.

When Kai was Principal, disasters happened! Kai let pets at school, she gave out candy at every recess, even P.E.! The kids loved it but the teachers were not so happy about it. At recess all the teachers went to the art room and made a big costume. The teachers had a plan to each dress up in one body part of a big, scary, Monster! The teachers gathered at the art teacher's house. The monster was big, with horrifying eyes, long nails, and giant fangs. All the students were horrified except Kai! "Yahhhh!" yelled Kai as she ran really fast to the monster. "Ahh" yelled the teachers but not in a brave way. "She's gonna run into us!", the teachers yelled. "What do we do?!" "We run the other Way, come on!!!" yelled another teacher. The teachers thought they would get away but then the costume started breaking down. It ripped, fell apart, and the teachers were revealed! "Huh?" said a student. "Isn't that the art teacher?" "we're sorry, we just wanted to stop you from giving out candy or taking pets to school." "we're not. Do you see any pets here?" "No."

The next day Skye wanted the principal to be absent, but she wasn't. "Well, at least I get to tell her what happened and that I am thankful for her." Hi! Principal said.
